NO. 1 SONG

If you think Luke Bryan is only hip shakin' and partyin', there's a whole 'nother side he reveals in this week's MusicRow Chart No. 1, "Drink A Beer."

In November Bryan opened up about the song in interviews with the national press, revealing it is dedicated to his older brother Chris and sister Kelly, who passed unexpectedly in 1996 and 2007, respectively.

Bryan's 2013 CMA Awards performance of the song written by Jim Beavers and Chris Stapleton was released as the music video. Stapleton, Bryan's Universal Music Group labelmate, played alongside the Nashville supernova during Country Music's Biggest Night.

Released as the third single from Bryan's blockbuster Crash My Party album, the song offers a rare glimpse into the heart of the Capitol Nashville singer—solid and grounded.

You can't get much hotter than Luke Bryan right now in Country Music. As of last week, the singer was No. 1 again on the sales charts, surpassing 1.5 million units sold.

His recent tour announcement rolled out quicker than expected when on-sale dates of the first tour leg flew off the shelf. Let's just say, be sure to catch a date on this upcoming That's My Kinda Night Tour – even if you caught Bryan's 2013 Spring Break, Farm Tour, or Dirt Road Diaries tours. This go-around, you may even catch him in a ballpark, or two.
