in December. “What she likes turns out to be Mexican food he brings home, speeding in his car, singing silly songs and, most of all, making love all night. The dreamy, rhythmic, midtempo song is expertly written and — it goes without saying — sung by a country-music master.”

But seriously, the real question is: have you seen the music video for the single? Did he actually set a house on fire with a watermelon candle? We can't tell by the scent of the flames, but the upstairs ordeal looked pretty genuine to us. One thing is sure though, the Mason Dixon-directed narrative is quite entertaining.

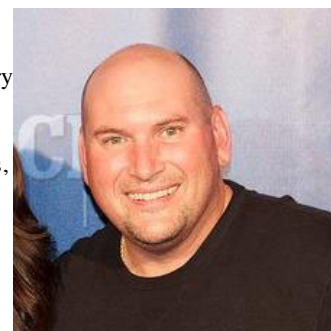

These days it seems everything Shelton touches turns as hot as his stardom. Ratings for the season premiere of The Voice were through the roof, but it doesn't stop there. He's set to co-host the live broadcast of the 49th Annual ACM Awards live, April 6 on CBS from Las Vegas for the fourth year in a row, this is the second year co-hosting with Luke Bryan.

But if you wanna feel the heat in person, catch him live for recently announced stops at NYC's Madison Square Garden, Los Angeles' the Hollywood Bowl, and Chicago's Wrigley Field as part of his upcoming Ten Times Crazier Tour 2014.

VOICES OF SECONDARY RADIO

Dave Tyler, WTRS/Ocala, FL

“We love Country music as much as our listeners and share their excitement for the artists. My Country FM is far from vanilla. We are fun, have attitude, and love what our listeners love: hunting, muddy trucks, and Country music. We present the best concerts, great CD weekends, and we have a huge listener interaction. Our listeners are our friends. Ocala/Gainesville is a great market.

Dave Tyler

In 2014, I'm excited to hear Thomas Rhett, Joel Crouse and I am pumped about a new gal named Clare Dunn! She rocks! There's also a young Nashville cat named Ryan Griffin who is about to be huge! I would love to go on the record as the first PD in the country to call it!”
