NO. 1 SONG

Eric Church came up swinging with this second single from his latest album, The Outsiders, which moved a total of 288k units in its first week, the largest Country release in six months. This week, the title track “Give Me Back My Hometown” has again held onto the peak of our MusicRow Chart, claiming the No. 1 spot for a second week.

Church has a way of inviting nostalgia into his music, and his co-written title with Luke Laird is no different. Jay Joyce masterfully builds an production masterpiece, which releases toward the end into a thunderous stomp, impactful and captivating.

You can catch Church in Austin, TX at the end of the month (March 29) for the inaugural iHeart Radio Country Festival. In addition, Church seems to be playing every music festival this spring and summer, including Tortuga (April 12), Stagecoach (April 25), Bayou Country (May 25), Florida Country (June 14), Country Jam (June 21), Country Stampede (June 28), and the Cape Blanco Country Music Festival (August 2). In between, Church will join George Strait for the legend’s final The Cowboy Rides Away Tour, playing an acoustic set in Arlington, TX on June 7.

VOICES OF SECONDARY RADIO

Jeffrey Hunt, WFGE/State College, Pa.

“We’re very involved with the local community, and that’s not always the easiest thing to do since our signal covers 10 counties! We always make it a point to mention at least one PSA per hour, whether it’s a local blood drive, church bake sale, etc...We’re constantly out in the community with live remotes, recording local elementary school children reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, local parades, or any other number of events. Our ties with our listeners are very strong, and we don’t take that for granted. In the five years that we’ve been on the air, our listeners have always been passionate for the format and the lifestyle. I’ve personally become friends with many of our listeners, and I consider myself very blessed and fortunate for that.”
