NO. 1 SONG

Billy Currington takes the No. 1 spot on the MusicRow CountryBreakout Chart with "Don't It," the first single from his sixth studio album, set to release this year.

The song was written by hit writers Ross Copperman, Ashley Gorley, and The Cadillac Three's Jaren Iohnston. This is Johnston's second No. 1 song to top the MusicRow chart this year. He also co-wrote "Raise 'Em Up" by Keith Urban and Eric Church. Gorley also hit No. 1 this year for his co-write on Jason Aldean's "Just Gettin' Started Tonight."

The music video debuted earlier this year and can be viewed here.

After a successful headlining tour, Currington is ready to go on the road with Tim McGraw on the Shotgun Rider Tour along with Chase Bryant.

MusicRow Spotlight

Colby Ericson/Afternoons/MD/KVWF/Wichita. Kan.

How long have you been at the station?

Seven years

What is your philosophy on adding new music?

Will our listeners get this? Does it fit the direction of the station? Does it have IT? And that is a gut feeling mostly, then the PD tells me what to add! LOL

What role do promoters play in your music decisions? They are huge. If they are passionate about their artists, it translates to us and that's a good thing. I try to listen to their suggestions each week, and then present their arguments in the music meeting. Convey to me your passion, don't just read me stats.

Why is it important to report to MusicRow? The chart is as much a promoter as it is a chart. I use it to see what is happening and who is moving. It helps me with presenting music in our meetings. The artist visits are nice too.

Tell us something great about your station and/or city. We hosted a Concert in the Park last year and over 13,000 people came out to see Natalie Stovall and the Drive and the Little River Band!

Who are some NEW artists that you're excited about? The Josh Abbott Band, Cody Johnson, Haley and Michaels, A Thousand Horses, Mickey Guyton, and fellow Kansan Logan Mize.
