NO. 1 SONG

Whoever wondered, "Hey whatever happened to girls on Country radio?" surely hasn't been watching Miranda Lambert's trajectory on the MusicRow CountryBreakout Chart. For the past 13 weeks "Automatic," the first single off her forthcoming RCA Nashville release Platinum, has been rising to the peak of the chart. This week it takes the cake as not only a radio smash, but the commercially successful track has sold a whopping 237k units to date.

Songwriting sirens Nicolle Galyon, Natalie Hemby and Lambert, take their lyrics to nostalgia's attic, sifting through memories of a time gone by – a time before the world became automatic. The gal trio also teamed to write the Nashville Star alumna's title track, before intermingling for other co-writes on the album.

The 30-year-old celebrity will exhibit gowns, stage costumes, and awards at the Country Music Hall of Fame, starting May 16, 2014. Narrated by the singer-songwriter's own tweets, Miranda Lambert: Backstage Access will run through Nov. 9.

Tell us something you love about your radio station...

I love it here because it is small town, local radio. It's the kind of radio I started in, back in 1974. We love putting local people on the air to talk about local happenings.

"Bubba James"

Why is it important to be on the MusicRow panel?

We are in a small market, helping great new acts... What a heart warming feeling.
