ARTIST SPOTLIGHT

Tony McKee

Sponsored by: Go Time Records

Current Single:
"Lightning Bugs"

Writers:
Bill DiLuigi, Tony McKee

Hometown:
Campbellsville, Kentucky

Mini Bio:
A bit of a contradiction (he counts old Hollywood MGM musicals and horror films amongst his favorites, he's from Kentucky but has never cared for hunting), it's an odd and unlikely combination of attributes that define Tony McKee and his style. After a lifetime of cultivating his sound, his debut single "Lightning Bugs" showcases the end result: a blend of classic country and genuine nostalgia with some unapologetic honesty mixed in. Bitten by the music bug at a young age, McKee performed anywhere and everywhere he could, from leading worship to taking part in competitions like the K-Country Showdown. As his craft progressed, he tried his hand in multiple genres, first recording a gospel album and touring churches and, later, recording a pop album. But McKee ultimately found his way back to his roots and country music, working with producer Kent Wells (Dolly Parton) to record "Lightning Bugs," part of new album release, American Dream.

Interesting Facts:
-Huge fan of classic Hollywood films/musicals and actors - particularly James Dean.
-Wrote scores for several independent horror films while living in LA.
