NO. 1 SONG

Brantley Gilbert's latest album, Just As I Am, has now provided three consecutive No. 1 songs on the MusicRow CountryBreakout Chart. "Bottoms Up" and "Small Town Throwdown" both reached the top in 2014. And the third single "One Hell Of An Amen," is this week's No. 1 song.

Written by Gilbert, Mike Dekle, and Brian Davis, the song speaks of losing a loved one. In the song, it uses a military family and losing a battle to cancer as examples. Both examples hit home with Gilbert. He lost a friend, Kory, to leukemia, and had a close friend who lost a military hero named Jon while fighting in Iraq.

"It's easy to say the song's about death, but to me, it's about the good fight," explains Brantley. "It's about the attitude, the strength and the courage those boys had for what they were going through. Kory battling leukemia and Jon fighting in Iraq... it's about two different wars. Anytime you go out fighting for your life or fighting for your country, that's 'One Hell of An Amen.'"

The video can be viewed on Vevo HERE.

Gilbert is currently on the road touring with select dates opening for Kenny Chesney on his stadium tours.
