NO. 1 SONG

For the second time this year, Blake Shelton took the No. 1 spot on our MusicRow CountryBreakout chart with “My Eyes.” Shelton’s “Doin’ What She Likes” went No. 1 on Feb. 20 of this year. This is the fifth single off of Shelton’s seventh studio album Based on a True Story. “My Eyes” was penned by Josh Osborne, Tommy Lee James and Andrew Dorff. The single also features 2012 The Voice contestant Gwen Sebastian. Shelton and Sebastian performed “My Eyes” for the first time live at the 2014 ACM Awards in April. This was not the first time the two of them worked together, though. Sebastian had been signed to Lofton Creek Records in 2009 before her run on The Voice, where she teamed with Shelton as a coach.

You can catch Shelton perform “My Eyes” as well as the other four No. 1’s from his latest album this summer on his Ten Times Crazier 2014 tour. The tour began in Austin on June 20, and will make 22 stops throughout North America. Opening acts include The Band Perry, Neal McCoy and Dan + Shav.

VOICES OF SECONDARY RADIO

Travis Williams KWAY/Lamar, CO

Colorado comes to us for news, local information, weather – we consider ourselves to be integral to the western lifestyle. There aren’t any television signals strong enough to reach us without cable, so our responsibility is a great one.

We are very honored to be a MusicRow station. It is great for our voice to be heard on a national scale and to compare our thoughts with the rest of the country.

For KWAY, which is a classic/new country hybrid, we don’t have the room make as many adds as some stations because the new country still has to share space with Johnny, Patsy, Loretta, and Waylon. So, we believe in quality – if its good, we’ll add it.

Some of my favorite new artists: Clare Dunn, Amy Rose, Chris Weaver Band, Tyler Farr, Kacey Musgraves, SaraBeth, Thomas Rhett.
