NO. 1 SONG

Radio stations were all about "A Song About a Girl" as it came in at the No. 1 spot on the MusicRow CountryBreakout Chart this week. The song was made famous by Eric Paslay, who co-wrote the title with Jessi Alexander and Gordon Sampson.

"About a Girl" is the second single off his debut album Eric Paslay, released on Feb. 4, and is his first single of his own that has graced the top of the MusicRow Chart. MusicRow's Robert K. Oermann said of the single: "I like this atmospheric-production. He's on a roll: the boy goes two for two," referring to his debut hit "Friday Night," which was produced by Marshall Altman and certified Gold in April. This isn't the first time Paslay has ascended our chart. He was a co-writer for Rascal Flatts' "Rewind," which took the top spot in April. You can catch Paslay perform both of these hits as he plays festivals and fairs throughout September in the Midwest and east coast.

VOICES OF SECONDARY RADIO

Will Payne KITX/Hugo, OK

What criteria and resources do you use to determine spins each week?

Overall sound and content of the song is first. The artist's relationship with the station helps as does

National, Regional, and local.

Events and show dates do effect the spins. More if they are coming to town.

What role do promoters play in your selection and exposure of new music?

Great for reminder notes!

In what areas does your station excel? (this is where you can do some bragging!)

For us it is the old school artist in-studio visits. We give time to schedule an appearance at the station. In fact this year we built a stage and large studio to accommodate live band performances.
