Maren Morris Releases Song Of Hope For Vegas Victims

When Maren Morris penned the song "Dear Hate" back in 2015 with Tom Douglas and David Hodges two days after the church shooting in Charleston, South Carolina, she had no idea the song would speak directly to another horrific tragedy just a few years later. Now, in response to the tragic events that occurred during the Route 91 Harvest Festival in Las Vegas, she is releasing the song to aid those affected by the shootings. Artist Bio

You Tube

Unlike many of today's young artists, Nick Brennan didn't dream about becoming a star. Being the son of a songwriter, Nick always enjoyed listening and singing to music but decided on another career path, broadcast journalism.

With a Bachelor's degree from the University of Missouri and a headful of smarts about the profession, finding work did not come easy. For nine months, Nick mixed his job search with recording his debut single, "Buck Naked."

After two years at WLUC-TV, the pull of music became too strong to resist. Nick bid his colleagues a fond farewell, headed back to Jacksonville and began recording and performing full-time. After an eight-week radio tour, Nick returned to Nashville, TN to continue writing and recording.

Having taken his first decisive steps into the spotlight, Brennan knows he's moving toward the goal he was destined to pursue.
