ARTIST SPOTLIGHT

Sarah Dunn Band

Sponsored By: Reznam Records

Single: "Dirty"

Songwriters: Sarah Dunn

Hometown: Neosho, MO

Website: www.SarahDunnBand.com

Artist Bio: There's a story that bandleader Sarah Dunn likes to tell about the extraordinary way in which she entered the world 27 years ago. Her mother Deborah, nine months pregnant, completed a full shift at the restaurant where she worked, drove herself to a midwife a half hour away to give birth and then drove back home with her baby girl. "Then she mowed the yard with a push mower," says Dunn, shaking her head in disbelief. Like her mother before her, Dunn possesses a tough sensibility that translates loud and clear in her music. The Missouri-based singer-fiddle player and her Tulsa, Oklahoma-based band rip through the seven tracks on the group's latest release, Wild Wild Heart, with the kind of scrappy attitude that comes from a lifetime of having to fight to make headway in an unforgiving world.

Born and raised in southwestern Missouri, Dunn grew up surrounded by a musical family. Her grandfather was an early rock & roller in the area, and she started learning to sing by sitting at the piano while her mother played. Her musical career began when she assembled her first band at the age of 13, performing to rough crowds in local bars and using every weapon in her arsenal to win them over. She still loves being onstage.

Sarah Dunn Band Fun Fact:

The Sarah Dunn Band opened for Charlie Daniels and he brought Sarah up to accompany him on dueling fiddles on "The Devil Went Down to Georgia."
