NO. 1 SONG

Carrie Underwood didn't waste any time or "take a break" while moving the first single from her forthcoming album up the chart. "Smoke Break" only took 9 weeks to reach the No. 1 spot on the MusicRow CountryBreakout Chart.

It is the lead single from her fifth studio album, Storyteller, which will be released through Arista Nashville on Oct. 23. The album was produced by Underwood's longtime producer Mark Bright, as well as Jay Joyce and Zach Crowell. Underwood co-wrote six of the project's 13 songs.

"Smoke Break" was written by Underwood along with song-writing stars Chris DeStefano and Hillary Lindsey. DeStefano is a frequent name on the track listings for Underwood. He also wrote chart-toppers such as "Something In The Water," "Little Toy Guns," (with Lindsey) and "Good Girl" for Underwood. Lindsey has now written seven chart-toppers for Underwood. More can be read about Lindsey here and in the latest MusicRow publisher issue.

Carrie Underwood will appear on NBC's Citi Concert Series on Today on Oct. 23, the same day of the album release for Storyteller.

Underwood will then once again co-host the CMA Awards with Brad Paisley on Wed. Nov. 4 on ABC.
