Blake Shelton Welcomes RaeLynn For 2017 Tour

Blake Shelton will welcome special guest and labelmate RaeLynn for his 2017 Doing It To Country Songs Tour, a title taken from a track on his current album If I'm Honest. The tour will begin in Bakersfield, California on Feb. 16, 2017, the first of 13 shows announced so far.

"Performing for an audience is what I love most – and if you're coming to see me, you're coming to hear country music, because that's what I do," said Shelton. "So get ready as we're going to be 'Doin' It To Country Songs' all night long!" To see the list of dates, click here.

Radio Industry Files Anti-Trust Complaint Against Global Music Rights

The Radio Music License Committee (RMLC) has filed an antitrust complaint against the new, fourth performing rights organization—Irving Azoff's Global Music Rights (GMR)—which begins its own radio licensing for the songwriters it represents on Jan. 1, 2017. The complaint is motivated by what the RMLC calls "anticompetitive behavior that, if unchecked, would allow GMR to charge the U.S. commercial radio industry monopoly prices to publicly perform musical works in the GMR repertory." Writers in GMR's fold include Nashville's Shane McAnally, Luke Laird, and Paul Overstreet, in addition to Pharrell Williams, Ryan Tedder and the estates of Lennon and Ira Gershwin among many others.
