Dolly Parton Establishes Fund For Smoky Mountain Wildfire Victims

The new My People Fund will provide $1,000 each month to the Sevier County families who lost their homes. "We want to provide a hand up to those families who have lost everything in the fires," Parton explained. "I know it has been a trying time for my people and this assistance will help get them back on their feet." Artist Bio:

By the young age of 23, Dylan Jakobsen has traveled the country more than most would in a lifetime. In 2015 and 2016 alone, he's performed at countless country festivals across North America including Watershed, Sunfest Country MF, Country Thunder, Taste of Country MF, Oregon Jamboree, Jam in The Valley, Country Jam, Country Fest and more. He's also directly supported LOCASH, Old Dominion, Love & Theft, Chase Bryant, James Otto, and Jason Michael Carroll. Dylan has been a Featured Artist on Taste of Country, The Boot, American Songwriter, Breaking Nashville, AXS and Huffington Post.

Fun Facts:

- I can't stand being barefoot.
- Canned green beans gross me out!
- I write all the parts on my record!
- My first car was involved in a hit-and-run. Instead of fixing the damage, I took the insurance payout and bought my first Taylor guitar. Less than a year later that same car got totaled in an accident (not my fault) and I took the money and bought my first tour van; a Chevy no less!
